

REACHING & TEACHING BLACK BOYS

www.darylhowardphd.com

DR. DARYL HOWARD

is an equity thought leader with a background in race and culture, social emotional learning, and the study of the triumphs and challenges of African American male students. Building upon his experiences as an academic, an author, and a mentor to young men, Dr. Howard is a tireless advocate for advancing the academic and social welfare of black male students.

Disrupting the “ACHIEVEMENT” GAP and halting the SCHOOL-TO-PRISON PIPELINE!

INTERROGATE

Implicit bias in the perceptions of black boys that normalize disparities in schools

EXPLORE

The stages of development, brain science, and cultural patterns of black male students

CONSIDER

New ways of engaging black boys while using strategies to guide their success